RESULT OF HARGIS PETITION FOR BAIL.

In the Fayette Circuit Court, on Monday, Judge Watts Parker, on the petition of the Hargises for bail, allowed ex-Senator A. H. Hargis to give bail in $15,000, and refused to allow Judge James Hargis, Elbert Hargis and Sheriff Ed. Callahan to give bail.

The trial of these parties, under the indictments for procuring the assassination of James Cockrell, were set for Tuesday next, April 4, and both sides assert that they will be ready when the case is called.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS BY ELKS.

On Wednesday night last the following gentlemen were elected officers of Frankfort Lodge, No. 580, B. P. O. Elks, for the ensuing year:

Exalted Ruler—R. W. McRerry.
Esteemed Leading Knight—J. Swigert Taylor.

Esteemed Loyal Knight—Geo. L. Barnes.

Esteemed Lecturing Knight—C. E. Boo.

Secretary—Grant L. Roberts.

Treasurer—J. W. Pruet, Jr.

Tyler—Chas. Whitehead.

Trustee for three year term—James Heeney.

It's the little colds that grows into big colds; the big colds that end in consumption and death. Watch the little colds. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

PLANS TO GET RICH

Are often frustrated by sudden break-down, due to dyspepsia or constipation. Brace up and take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They take out the materials which are clogging your energies, and give you a new start. Cure headache and dizziness too. At all drug-gists; 25¢, guaranteed.

CHANGES OF BASE.

Mr. J. M. VanDerveer has rented "Edgewood," the handsome home of the late Col. John L. Scott, Sr. (now the property of Mr. W. McKey Hardie), and has moved his family to the same.

Mr. A. C. VanWinkle, late of Danville, has rented the cozy home of Mr. J. M. VanDerveer, on Shelby street, and has moved in with his family.

PREPARING TO BUILD.

Mr. Robert L. Greene has torn down the old stable which was standing on his lot on Third street, and is preparing to build a residence upon the lot.

Dr. J. A. Posey is arranging to build a handsome home on the lot recently purchased by him on North Murray.

Miss Eliza Overton is arranging to put up a comfortable home on the lot recently purchased by her on North Shelby street.

Mr. Henry M. Crak is arranging to build a neat and comfortable house on his lot on South Shelby street.

Mr. E. M. Wallace is arranging to build a brick cottage on Third street, near Murray.

Messrs. Rogers & Sons are letting the contracts for their handsome, three-story brick store-room, on St. Clair street, and will commence the work of removing the old Miles residence next week.

A ROLAND FOR HIS OLIVER.

The Georgetown Times, of March 29, says very justly:

"The Republican rascals in Colorado have brought the State into general contempt."

But how about that little Kentucky affair, managed by Editor Bell's party, in 1900?

WENT THROUGH BURNING TRESTLE.

The westbound passenger train, on the Louisville Southern Railroad, ran into a burning trestle, on Monday afternoon, some two miles this side of Shelbyville, and was wrecked. The trestle, which was of wood, had been ignited by a passing freight train. It was round a curve, where the engineer could not see it in time to stop entirely. He, however, slowed up, after he discovered the burning trestle, but not enough to prevent the engine, baggage and mail cars from crashing through to the valley below. The cars were ignited and burned up, together with a portion of the contents.

Luckily no one was seriously hurt.

Several trains from that road were compelled to come through this city over the L. & N. from Shelbyville.

SUNDAY'S ALARM.

At 12:40 p. m. on Sunday, an alarm from box 26 called the fire boys to a cottage occupied by colored people on North St. Clair street, where the roof was found to be on fire. It was quickly extinguished with but nominal loss.

The wind was blowing pretty hard, and it was feared that a serious fire would occur but by good work it was prevented.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment.
Syrup purifies the blood, Cures heals skin eruptions.

GETS A GOOD PLACE.

Mr. Robert A. Burton, who has been individual bookkeeper for the Farmers Bank, has been appointed to the position of superintendent of one of the big distilleries in Marion county, and has gone to Lebanon to take charge of the place.

Mr. Burton is a genial, popular and efficient gentleman.

We regret to lose him and his family from our city.

BRICKLAYERS' UNION.

The bricklayers of this city have formed a union and elected the following officers:

President—S. W. Howell.

Vice President—Walter Brawner.

Corresponding, Financial Secretary and Treasurer—Robert A. Brawner.

Recorder—C. W. Merchant, Jr.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Sobieski Howell.

Trustees—Hiram Forbes, H. K.

Brawner and W. H. Netherton.

Deputy—Morgan Brawner.

Alternate—Sherley Howell.

Constructor—Jas. G. Brawner.

It will be known as No. 14 of the Masons' and Bricklayers' International Union.

REFUSED TO CHANGE THE DATE.

The Democratic Committee of this (the Fourteenth) Judicial District met in this city on Tuesday and refused, by a vote of 8 to 1, to change the date for holding the primary election to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge. Therefore, the primary will be held on Wednesday next, April 5, as already arranged for.

COL. YOUNG E. ALLISON RE- TIRES.

It is with sincere regret that we learn that Col. Young E. Allison, the brilliant and versatile editor of the Louisville Herald, has sold his interest in that paper and has retired from the editorship.

Col. Allison is a writer of singular ability, clearness, and purity of style. His retirement is a heavy loss to journalism in Kentucky.

FIRST SHOWING

OF LADIES' SPRING

O x f o r d s

THIS is going to be an Oxford season—instead of boots the lady of fashion will wear this spring a pair of welted sole Oxfords and a pair of uppers to protect the ankles. We are ready with the latest styles in

Laird, Schober & Co.'s

—AND—

Queen Quality

OXFORDS. Patent leather, gun metal and tan Russie calf, are the prevailing leathers, while the pump and two eyelet Gibson blucher are the smartest of the new styles. Then there is a variety of styles here hardly equalled by the larger city stores. Look at them as shown in our show window. You will find there an exhibition of what's what in new spring footwear, such as can only be seen at McClure's, in this section of the country.

Laird, Schober & Co.'s Oxfords, $5.00.

Queen Quality Oxfords, $2.50 and $3.00.

R. K. MCCLURE & SON

RELAYING TIES AND TRACK.

The Frankfort and Versailles Traction Co. is relaying the ties and track along the line on the South Side. They are putting down heavier ties and rails preparatory to running the freight cars from the L. & N. Yards, on the West Side. For a day or two the cars only ran as far as the corner of Shelby and Second, but now are running the whole route. They are also repairing the line to Cove Spring Park, with a view to make that attractive breathing place of the city still more attractive this summer.

APPOINTED CITY BOARD OF TAX EQUALIZATION.

Mayor Darnell has appointed the following gentlemen as the City Board of Equalization of Taxes: W. W. Darnell, Eugene Scott and Henry Gobber.

REGULAR SUMMER WEATHER.

On Tuesday last the thermometer registered 78 degrees. Regular summer weather.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Creme.
Successful treatment for blood and skin diseases.

ATTENDED INSPECTION OF VERSAILLES COMMANDERY, NO. 8, K. T.

Six Knights John P. Selbert, Frank G. Stagg, Theodore Wiley, Stuart Wood and Colón M. Jones went to Versailles on Monday night and attended the annual inspection of Versailles Commandery, No. 8, Knights Templar. There was a delightful banquet served after the ceremonies were concluded.

A GOOD PICTURE.

Collier's Weekly, of this week, contains a fine picture of Hon. John Maynard Harlan, the next Mayor of Chicago, Ills., who is a son of Justice John Marshall Harlan, of the Supreme Court of the United States, and a Frankfort boy.

AGED MINISTER DIES.

Rev. Geo. S. Savage, D. D., for many years agent of the American Bible Society, died at his home in Winchester, on Monday last, aged 94 years.

Dr. Savage was a minister of the Southern Methodist Church. He was an able man. He was an uncle of Rev. J. S. Savage, recently pastor of the Methodist Church in this city.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdone. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and regular use of German Syrup. Free of concoction, the morning is made certain by German Syrup. So is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumption can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warm climate, you will find that the few who are consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength and use that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25¢; regular size, 75¢. At all druggists.

MARRIED...DEATHS...

THOMPSON-CROSS—In Knoxville, Tenn., on January 31, Mr. Charles French Thompson and Miss Mattie Walker Cross of Dossett, Tenn., were married by Rev. Jas. A. Lyons.

Mr. Thompson is a valued employee of the Mason & Hoge Co., at Welch, W. Va., and is a son of Mr. L. P. Thompson, of this city.

His bride is said to be a pretty and popular young lady.

The news, though late in getting here, will cause congratulations to be extended to the happy young people.

MILLER-GOOD — Friends of the contracting parties have received announcements of the approaching marriage of Mr. Markham Miller and Miss Minnie Miller Good, which will occur at St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday, April 8th.

Mr. Miller is well known here, where his father, Rev. Dr. Chas. W. Miller, was pastor of the Methodist Church. He is a hustling young business man of Lexington, Ky.

His bride is said to be a splendid young lady—pretty and popular.

DON'T BORROW TROUBLE.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At all druggists. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

SCHLOSSER—At his home at Thorn Hill, on Monday night, Mr. Joseph Schlosser, aged about 43 years, of pneumonia.

Mr. Schlosser was an industrious and clever gentleman. He was a member of the Bethel Baptist Church.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. B. Adams, on Wednesday afternoon.

He was buried by his brethren in the Junior Order of American Mechanics.

He leaves an aged father and sister, a wife and five children to mourn his untimely death.

GAY—At the home of his daughter, Mrs. Howard H. Rodman, on Saturday night, March 25, Capt. W. L. Gay, aged 68 years.

Capt. Gay had been a brave and gallant soldier of the Lost Cause, and was badly wounded in several battles, so that his life was despaired of. He was a genial and companionable gentleman, and made friends wherever he went. He was the owner of an extensive and valuable plantation in Mississippi, a few hours ride from Memphis, Tenn. He had spent the greater portion of his life in the management of his plantation.

Several years ago his only child and daughter married Mr. Howard H. Rodman, of this city, and Captain Gay and his devoted wife had spent the greater portion of the time here, especially since his health had failed from the effects of wounds received in battle. His brave and gentle spirit buoyed him up until the last and he passed gently and quietly over the river.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. B. Chinn, of Ascension Episcopal Church, on Monday, and the remains were laid to rest in our cemetery. He leaves the wife of his youth, one daughter and four grandchildren to mourn his departure.

GARRETT—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. John H. Garrett, in Versailles, on Sunday, Mrs. Amanda Garrett, of Kansas City, Mo., aged 80 years, of pneumonia.

Mrs. Garrett was an old-time Christian woman—a devoted wife, mother and friend. She was formerly a resident of Versailles, but for many years had lived in Kansas City, Mo. She was a devout member of the Baptist Church. The funeral services were conducted on Wednesday afternoon, in Versailles, by Rev. Dr. J. F. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church, and the remains were laid away in the cemetery at that place.

A pathetic feature was the fact that Mrs. Garrett had only been on a visit of a few days to her daughter when she was called to her home on high.

We tender our sincerest sympathy to the bereft children.

Mrs. M. Duck Helm will dress make, 514 East Main.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mrs. Martha List, of Cincinnati, visited her parents, Capt. G. W. White and wife, this week.

Mr. A. Ford was in Louisville for several days last week.

Mr. L. C. Kenny, of Shelby county, has moved to what is known as the Judge Lewis farm.

Miss C. E. Thomason and Mr. Eliza King have returned from a winter stay in Indiana.

Rev. G. W. Hill has had as his guests Mr. John Hill and Miss Annie Hill, of Cincinnati.

We regret to learn that Miss Mattie Kelly's condition is not at all satisfactory. She is suffering greatly from a gripe.

Mr. Jos. Thomas and family and Mrs. Sallie Jewett have moved from Great Crossings to Mrs. Martha Lindsey's.

The prospect for wheat is improving rapidly. Fields that were almost bare a few weeks ago now show good stands.

The rainy weather of last week caused a cessation of farming work, but the fine weather this week has started the plows to running on the uplands.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them to take German Syrup for any special benefit after the use of one 75 cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other nostrums. Our contention in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice.

We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75 cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchitis or lung troubles and that, when it has failed to accomplish one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c, regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

MARCH—WEATHER.

I. The weather is a country lass, I found this true—to-day: When through the wet and tangled grass,

She led March out—to-day. Both laughed and sang in sweet re-prise, Quarell'd, and then made friends again.

II.

The weather is in coquettish maid, I know she by her face;

So shy as she and so afraid,

Gertrude's underbrace.

And when she disguised her ear,

She ran away, and would not hear.

III.

The weather is decided blond, With tender skies of blue;

Affectionate and very fond,

Of moods and tenses too.

The lamb is basking in the sun

The Lion's share will soon be won.

IV.

The weather is a woman grown, As faithful as the rest,

And when March claimed her as

She wept upon his breast.

No matter if he storms or blows,

She'll follow whereso'er he goes.

THE REVIVAL.

Splendid Congregations and Large Gathering.

The revival that has been in progress in this city has not, at the time we write, shown any signs of abatement. On the contrary, the people having turned out in larger numbers than even last week showed.

Owing to circumstances controlling affairs, none but the regular services have been held at the First and Southern Presbyterian Churches.

At the Ascension Church only the regular Lenten services have been held, but these have been well attended.

At the Christian Church large congregations have attended every night, and Rev. C. R. Hudson, the pastor, has preached strong and attractive sermons which, together with the sweet singing of Prof. Cappa and wife, and the children's chorus, have rendered these services unusually solemn and impressive.

At the Methodist Church, Rev.
J. O. A. Vaught, the pastor, has preached heart-searching and tender sermons, setting forth the truths of the gospel with unusual clearness and power. Full houses have greeted each service, and great solemnity has prevailed.

At the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Preston Blake, has continued to preach twice a day to very large congregations; that,
especially, of Sunday night, filling the big auditorium, the Sunday-school rooms and the balcony,
until but few could have found seats.

Dr. Blake's power is in the great simplicity and directness with which he appeals to the minds and hearts of his hearers.
He indulges in no clap-trap, such as evangelists usually employ, but simply takes familiar truths and to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich;

their fat is laid up for happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every

Shattered Nerves

Too Nervous to Sleep
or Rest.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

A shattered nervous system nearly always leads to some affection of the heart, especially where the patient's heart is weak from hysteria or other causes. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a nervous and heart tonic which speedily corrects and regulates the heart's action, enriches the blood, and improves the circulation. It will build you up as well as did Mr. Clegg whose letter follows, and greatly improve your general health:

"I have been severely blessed by Dr.
Miles' Nervous and Heart Cure I highly recommend them as the best remedies for the diseases they are recommended to cure.
When I began taking these medicines I weighed only 100 lbs., my nerves were badly shattered and my heart troubled me a great deal. I had pain in my left arm and hand, I had difficulty in breathing, my heart would flutter and palpitate.
I could eat scarcely any kind of food without feeling great distress. I was nervous and nervous that I slept little night or day.
Now I am never bothered with my heart,
my nerves are steady as a die. I sleep well, eat well, and weigh 125 lbs. I am well and am trying to make back the money
I spent for doctors who did me no good when I was ill." — T. R. CRAWFORD, Center, throws the lime light of reason

and common sense upon them, showing the great superiority and power of true Christian living, even looking at it from strictly a worldly view. His sermons are short and to the point. He does not attempt to arouse fevered or unhealthy excitement.

Throughout this whole series of meetings the aim and object of the ministers in charge has been to arouse God's people to a sense of their own shortcomings and culpable indifference, and to draw them closer together, in order that the work of the Master may be regularly and systematically done.

The resultant good has been that the Spirit's work has overflowed from Christian hearts, and outsiders have been won in large numbers to the standard of the cross.

The work that has been accomplished has been done in the individual churches, but the membership of all have been drawn nearer to each other and the preachers
have been as a band of brethren, seeking alone the glory of their God and King.

Never, in all our knowledge,
has there been such cordial fellowship among the different populations of this city.

VETERANS OF KENTUCKY
STATE BATTALIONS ASKED
TO UNITE IN URGING PEN-SION LEGISLATION.

Elmville, Ky., March, 1905.
To the Kentucky State Battalions, who served in the years of 1864 and 1865: I would like to hear from all officers and privates who may see this notice.
My desire is to have them, at all county seats in Kentucky where the members of these battalions live, and organize and appoint delegates to meet in Frankfort, Ky., some time in June of this year to form some kind of organization and send resolutions to the Congress of the United States asking for the passage of a law giving to those who served in these battalions a pension for services rendered in behalf of the United States Government and for disabilities received while in the line of duty. I served in Company F, First Regiment of the Frankfort, Ky., battalion in Capt. Joel
C. Busey's company of Bath country rangers. If any officer or private sees this notice I would be glad to hear from them. My address is Elmville, Franklin county, Ky. Other State or county papers will greatly oblige
if they will copy this notice.

(From the Lexington Herald.)
WHOSE MEMORY SHOULD KENTUCKY HONOR?

In an editorial published a month or six weeks ago on the unveiling of the statue of Frances E. Willard, in the Hall of Statuary at Washington, we called attention to the fact that Kentucky had not availed herself of the right to place in that hall the statues of two of her citizens.

After the House of Representatives had moved from the old room in which it had held its sessions to the new hall in which it now holds its sessions, the old hall was set apart as a Hall of Statuary. Each State of the Union was given the right to place therein the statues of two of its citizens who had achieved greatness. Since that was done, now nearly half a century ago, nineteen States have placed statues of their sons in that hall, fourteen States the two allowed. We pul-lished in the editorial on the unveiling of the statue of Miss Willard a list of those States which have placed statues of their sons there, and the names of those sons, and will republish that list
in Sunday's issue.

Last week the Henderson County Medical Society determined to present to the Legislature the claim of Dr. Ephraim McDowell to have his statue placed in the Capitol and requested the State Medical Society and Medical Journal to use their influence to have him so honored. We are glad to see the action taken by the Henderson County Medical Society. We hope other organizations will present the names of those whom each organization believes the most worthy of having their statues placed in the Hall of Statuary, so there will be a discussion of and a revival of interest in the lives of Kentucky's great sons.

Some four years ago The Herald inaugurated a contest, offering prizes to students in the Kentucky colleges who named the twelve greatest of Kentucky's dead sons.
That contest was decided by a jury of two hundred of the leading citizens of Kentucky, and aroused wide interest, not only in Kentucky,
but in the other States to which Kentuckians have gone
and in which they or their descendants now reside. We do not know what, if any, action the Legislature to be elected this year will take about placing statues of two Kentuckians in the Hall of Statuary. But a widespread discussion of the merits of those who for any reason may have claims to be so honored, will aid in having the two greatest of all dead Kentuckians selected. The Herald will, to aid in arousing this interest, give four prizes—one of $10 in gold or in books, one of
$7.50 in gold or in books, one of $5 and one of $2.50—to the students of Kentucky college or public school who name the two Kentuckians who should be honored by the Legislature; the only requisite for any one to take part in this contest is, that he or she must be a bona fide student at a Kentucky college or public school.
The decision will be by the vote of the people of Kentucky who take an interest in it. We hope that every paper in the State will publish a notice of the contest and will ask their subscribers to send to The Herald the names of the two citizens whose statues they think should be placed in the Hall of Statuary. The contest began Monday, March
the 27th, and close Saturday, April 29th. All selections must be received at The Herald office by that time. Only one selection from each student will be considered, and if there is more than one correct selection, the one received at The Herald office first will be awarded the first prize;
the one received second, the second prize; the third prize; the fourth correct selection, the fourth prize. We will republish on Sunday the announcement which we made in the contest four years ago, and from time to time republish the sketches of those twelve great men who were adjudged the greatest of Kentucky's sons.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till tomorrow what you ought to do now," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps even weeks, and that you have put it off to-day—and let that remedy which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its use, for a few days, will cure you completely.

Now, whatever may have been the assumption has attacked your cough, even if dread syrup has attacked your lungs. German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

HONORS FOR PROF. T. LINDSEY BLAYNEY, PH. D.

Prof. T. Lindsey Blayney, Ph. D., of the Chair of Modern Languages at Central University, Danville, has been appointed to a like Chair at Princeton University, at a very handsome increase over his present salary.

Prof. Blayney is the eldest son of Rev. Dr. J. McClusky Blayney, of this city, and has only been at Danville one year.

It is not known as yet whether he will accept the new place.

This is an unusually high honor to be paid to so young a man, and shows that Prof. Blayney is very highly regarded for his ability and learning.

CHANGE OF NAME

The new proprietors of the Hotel Fleming have changed the name of that hotel to that of the Frankfort Hotel, effective today, April 1st.

SELL HOME PLACE.

Misses Lucy and Lou Pattie have sold their home place adjoining Stewart Home, six miles from this city, on the Lawrenceburg Pike, to Dr. John P. Stewart. The price paid was $4,000 cash, and is considered a very good one.

THROWN OUT OF BUGGY.

As Mr. J. H. Halmhuber was driving out Murray street, on Thursday, his horse became frightened at a street car and whirled around throwing Mr. Halmhuber out of his buggy, bruising and jarring him somewhat. No other damage.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, gripe, or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

TIM MURPHY.

"He holds a place in the hearts of theatre-goers that is firmly established. It will take many viscidities to displace it."

"When an audience talks to a player from their seats, you can vouch for it he is their idol—they do that with Tim Murphy."

"He is a true artist and none better than he appreciates the value of contrast and antithesis."

"His presentation stands for all that is clever, artistic and exceptional in the sense of careful attention."

"When a Man Marries" is the embodiment of what is called high-class comedy, and is laughable to an extra me.

"Tim Murphy has attained an enviable position in the dramatic world, which he deserves."

"The satire and comedy are there in abundance. It is just suited to Tim Murphy and his players, who made a big hit."

"If popularity means riches then Tim Murphy should be a dramatic Rockefeller, or a theatrical Pierpont Morgan."

Tim Murphy, in "When a Man Marries," comes to Capital Theatre Wednesday night, April 5th, and this promises to be one of the very best attractions that has ever appeared in this city. Show your appreciation of Manager McNamee's efforts to give you the very best attractions by turning out in masse next Wednesday night.

THE ROUNDABOUT'S DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, EDUCATION, LITERATURE.

A Plea for Pure Motives.

The student of Ruskin will find him to be an earnest, clear, clear exponent of motives, and morals, which the writers of the present day would do well to imitate as well as emulate.

He gives to his readers such delightful sense of rare virtues, and a conception and significance of existence, that the very thought and meaning of life is blended as exquisitely as the petals of perfume of roses in the garden of memory. What is the best method of reaching ultimate truth? The weight of evil with which teachers, especially, have to contend is increasing like the outpouring of water. There is no time for them to indulge in idle sophistries or metaphysical fantasies when the crime of deception is abroad among their pupils, and the miseries of its duplicity are being heaped higher day after day.

If, by the lifting of a finger in the right direction for the stamping out of such sin, and seeing the necessity as well as the need for purity of physical, mental, and spiritual endowment, the masses must awaken to the question at stake, and allow no appearance of prejudice or indifference to interfere with the acknowledgement of all those sacred principles of faith, trust, and obedience which were and are the fundamental bases for the culture and structural building which we term character.

Books are one's best friends and companions if these be rightly chosen, and read with common sense and discernment.

But they become nauseous and insidious as the poison of asps if they teach impure thinking, immoral tendencies, degenerate altitude, and omit altitude to higher aim, loftier attainments and unselfish living.

I have in mind a writer, whose name is almost a household word in old Kentucky, for he is one of her sons—he has written many sweet, delightful stories which are like the song of birds, but in later years his tone has become acid, and the moral tendency of his writings show every sign of degeneracy.

If one could play with fire and not get burned, then a perusal and acquaintance with recent fiction (emanating from the brain and pen of this wielder of modern thought), might make advance in psychological research, but the end would not justify the means. "The secret of beauty in life is the inner purity of heart and soul. The secret of attaining it is through the culture of the soul life."

Then let the boy or the girl read only those books wherein are implanted good motives, pure morals, right principles. Newspapers are responsible, to a large degree, for the decadence of classical reading, and the editors themselves shall be held accountable at the bar of God for allowing the impure streams of slush, mud, corrupt and unprincipled methods, to sweep in unrestrained headlines (massive and brazen as were the gates of Babylon)—through an avenue that might be as curative in its effect as the literature of the Bible, but which is as devastating to the mind of the average reader as the scoria of volcanic eruption to the sunny vineyards of bright and beautiful Naples on the shores of Italy.

Newspapers, like books, might become vehicles for the dissemination of sound, wholesome teaching but instead are used to reproduce all the cruel, heart-breaking anathemas of modern civilization. Would to God that all such "news" as divorce suits, suicides, and other kindred topics might be relegated to the office of the dead, and the advance of the "printed sheet" be made in the interest of right living, and a law passed, also enforced, against a "brain child" being born out of wedlock.

"How difficult must the maintenance of that authority be, which, while it has to restrain the hostility of all the worst principles of man, has also to restrain the disorders of his best—which is continually assaulted by the ones and betrayed by the other, and which regards with the same severity the lightest and the boldest violations of its law!"

"There are some faults slight in the sight of love, some errors slight in the estimation of wisdom; but truth forgives no insult, and endures no stain. Do not let us lie at all. Let us not think of one falsity as harmless, and another as slight, and another as unintended. Cast them all aside. They may be light and accidental; but they are an ugly soot from the smoke of an angry heart."

Speaking truth is like writing fair and comes only by practice, and can be as delightful an accomplishment to the modern boy or girl as musical or artistic attainment.

I did not deem that life could be, Attuned to such a symphony; And dared to take within my hands

The cause for which the truth demands, Implicit trust, and noble wills The law of God and man fulfills.

"WINTER DONE BROKE."

It is an old saw that "all signs fail in dry weather," but we hope the latest sign that "winter done broke," in the fact that several flocks of wild geese have been passing north, will not fail, and that we have had the last of the cold weather.

FINE COMPLIMENT TO FRANKFORT BOY.

Last week the Professor of Greek, in Georgetown College, left for a trip to Greece, and while he is to be away Mr. Russell S. Penn, of this city, who is a student in that college, has been selected to teach the class in Greek.

This is an unusually fine compliment to a gifted and worthy young man. Mr. Penn is the son of Mr. Si Penn and wife, of this city, a graduate of the Frankfort High School, and was tutored in Greek by Rev. M. B. Adams. He is a grandson of Rev. Frank H. Hodges, of blessed memory.

Another illustration that Frankfort boys go to the front wherever they are.

MEMORIAL CONTEST.

We would call attention to the notice, which we clip from the Lexington Herald, in regard to the contest as to the two greatest men of Kentucky whose statues shall be placed in Statuary Hall, in Washington City.

It is a matter that should receive the attention of every student in all the colleges of Kentucky.

There is an unbound wealth of material from which to choose. The Herald deserves the highest commendation for thus calling attention to this matter and for offering prizes to the three students who give the correct choice from the great men of the greatest State in the Union.

HUSTLING YOUNG MAN.

We have received a copy of the Danville Advocate, of which Mr. Stephen K. Vaught, son of Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, of this city, is the local editor.

The work of Mr. Vaught is of a high order and gives evidence that the young man is a hustler and no doubt will rise in his profession in the near future.
